Welcome Message from the President

The 2nd International conference of Asia Union of Magnetics Societies (ICAUMS 2012) will be held in Nara, Japan, from October 2nd to 5th, 2012. The Conference is the second one since the original founding conference in Jeju Island, Korea. With joint efforts made by the Japan Magnetic Society, the ICAUMS2012 will be the Asia's key forum to showcase the latest progress in magnetism and magnetic technologies and be one of the most widely recognized events.

Over the past decade, we have noted that activities related to Magnetic Research in Asia region grow amazingly fast. We are pleased to meet in Nara, with distinguished speakers and participants from world-wide science and technology communities and private sector. We believe researchers, technical and business professionals and end user in industries will share and exchange their ideas and R&D experiences.

ICAUMS is planned to provide a range of oral and poster presentations, invited talks and symposia, a tutorial session, and exhibitions reviewing the latest developments in magnetics. Our organizing committees will make tremendous contributions to enrich the program contents. I gratefully acknowledge their team efforts and would like to extend a personal thanks to all the members.

Nara is one of the great traditional cities, cultural and history. Artistic and religion endeavors are also abundantly on display. From the "The Greatest Buddha Shrine" which houses the world's tallest wooden sculpture, to the wonderful forests, Nara is blessed both with man-made and natural gifts that welcome the visitor.

On behalf of the council members of AUMS and organizing committee of ICAUMS2012, it is my honor to cordially welcome you all to this exciting global dialog.

President of AUMS, 2012
